Directors Report – Thursday March 21st

February Highlights

- The Children's Room teamed up with Watertown Family Center to collect diaper donations at our first ever Diaper Drive. Diapers of all sizes were collected at the Belmont Public Library children's space, along with the Watertown Public Library and the Watertown Public Schools, to support the Belmont and Watertown families who use the Watertown Food Pantry. Diapers are not covered by any food assistance programs therefore organizations and food pantries rely on donations. We are very grateful to Annemarie Hopkins of Watertown Family Center for coordinating this effort, and look forward to doing another one as soon as possible.
- It was another year and another incredibly successful International Valentine's Day party on Saturday, February 10th at the Winn Brook Elementary School cafeteria. The library collaborated with Lindsey Rinder, the director of English Language Education at the Belmont Public Schools, and many enthusiastic volunteers to throw a party open for all where the different customs of Valentine's Day around the world were celebrated, complete with a pot luck. 75 adults and children came together to have fun, eat delicious food, and make cards for loved ones as well as for veterans, newly arrived families from around the world, and those living in shelters. The card making art supplies were courtesy of the Friends of the Belmont Library.
- Sometimes small changes have a big impact: during the month of February, the Circulation Department was able to maximize shelf space for holds and move the feature films, TV series and video games collections from the multi-purpose room at the Beech Street Center to the Circulation area. This change resulted in improved collection access and contributed to a 9.5% increase in circulation over last month.
- In February we were able to collaborate with other Massachusetts libraries to bring our patrons several fascinating speakers including Peter Bellerby on globe making, Jennifer Gehly He on using AI to increase productivity, and a panel discussion of grassroots politics featuring Dr. Rachael V. Cobb.
- Nature lovers of all ages had a great time at the library's February vacation program hosted by Wildlife Encounters. Held at the Beech Street Center, the program was open to all ages, and had audience members ranging from babies to seniors, getting to experience a real encounter with all kinds of creatures including a tarantula, a tortoise, and a macaw that loved to dance to Taylor Swift songs. Audience members all had a chance to pet a chinchilla on their way out the door. We are very grateful for the support of the Beech Street Center staff. We would not have been able to host this program without their help.

- It's the Year of the Dragon! Belmont families helped celebrate Lunar New Year by taking home a craft kit and building their own paper dragon. The craft supplies were generously provided by the Friends of the Belmont Library.
- Trustees joined staff for an appreciation brunch on February 1st to thank them all for a great effort during the Library move out, and temp space service launch
- The Library Building Project received it's building permit and moved forward with demolition of the old library
